THE WASHINGTON CRITIC, Washington, D. C.

RICHARD H. SYLVESTER, - - Editor WASHINGTON, JULY 1, 1886.

Persons leaving the city for the summer can have THE CRITIC mailed to their address for 40 cents per month, postage paid.

A REMINDHAND HOUSE, Senator Beck has been speaking out in meeting again. He said yesterday that he felt humiliated by the fact that many of the appropriations had been reduced without reference to the pub-He good, but simply in order that the House might go to the country and claim greater ere ilt for resnowy. He also criticised the House for its delay in passing absolutely accessary legislation, entering usit does upon a new fiscal year, without the appropriation required by law having been made Both of Mr. Beck's criticisms are well made

The House in many cases have cu down and even left out appropriation of money with the expectation that the Senare would make it all right. And in other cases the House knows well enough that its failure to grant less than the sum of money necessary for any specific purpose will, if the Senate does not increase the figures sent over to them, be followed at the next session of Congress by defletency bills. The general policy which it pursues in regard to appropriations is not only nurrow-minded, but it increases work. The "little deficiency," the "special de ficiency" and the "general deficiency" bills take up proportionately, because of the necessary investigation that goes with them, more time than the regular appropriation bills. This could be avoided by treating the estimates of the heads of departments generously and not as if those officials sat up nights to discover ways and means by which to reak into the Treasury.

Of the fact that the 1st of July ha -ived without the Appropriation bills pg become laws, it is only necesto remind one that Congress has in session since the 4th of Decemast, and certainly has not accomied any great results in the direcof general legislation. Even if it done so, while it might be put th as a mitigating circumstance, I it would be no excuse whatever for owing he first day of the fiscal year fawn without money having been inted to emry on the Government. nator Beck is semewhat justified in ring that it is a record of which he

THE STANNARD PENSION.

There is this about the pension of 00 a month which the Senate has sted to the widow of the late George Stannard, If, is the opinion of Concess, it is such an exceptional case of pricas to warrant such an appropriion without doing injustice to thounds of other pensioners of aimants-in other words if it is voted good faith and with an honest, content regard for precedents, and can be made to appear in this light to the President, he should of course approve It and doubtless would do so.

If, upon the other hand, the bill has been passed in a reckless spirit of bravado, without reference to the equities of the question and with a "dareyou-to-veto-it" sort of challenge to the President, the latter should have no hesitation in vetoing it so quick as to make the Senate's head swim, and, if possible, with such a thunderous voice of disapprobation as to shake the foundations of the Capitol.

Then let Congress make a "test case" of it if it has the courage, or rather the effrontery, to do it.

Nobody questions the gallantry of General Stannard's services or the propriety of voting his widow such a pension as she is fairly entitled to and as is being paid in similar instances but if Senators or Representatives are simply fooling with the matter in order to catch the President in a trap, they had better be very careful how they spring it and keep their own feet dillgently scarce. Old soldiers can see through such a performance quite as well as other people. Of all others, the veterans least approve of edious discriminations in the distribution of pensions, and if any sculduggery is attempted in this matter they will disapprove it with just a much emphasis as Mr. Cleveland will. The President has announced that he will not countenance the appropriation of gratuities from the public treasury and there is not the least probability that he is going to be scared out of his position. He will sign the Smanard bill if he finds it one that in his judgment ought to be signed. Otherwise

THE LIQUOR DECENSES In Atlanta ex-pired last night in 14 o'clock, and one minute after that hou. Atlanta became a probibition town. The topor dealers had made no evident preparation for closing up, but kept open noth to o'clock, and did a rushing business. Their places were througed with drinking men, many of whom took home with them demijohns and flasks of various sizes. Atlanta has now entered upon an experiment the result of which will be looked forward to with great interest. In cities of similar size where prohibition has been tried it has usually been found to work unsatisfactorily. In smaller towns and villages in other States It has often been, if less a failure, still a failure. But in the fowns and villages of Georgia, where the people have voted that way, the result has been almost complete prohibition. The people of Georgia and other Southern States are very much in earnest in this matter. For this reason Atlanta may be expected to succeed much better in enforcing probibition than the cities of Maine, Iowa and silier Sintes.

IT MAY be of Interest to the employes of the Treasury Department to know that the newly-appointed Assistant Secreturn of the Treasury is a firm be lever in Civil Service Reform. While a member of the Legislature of South Carolina he introduced a resolution which was passed and forwarded to Mr. Cleveland, then President elect, redilynding a former resolution asking the Sepators and Representatives in Congress to stand by the Civil Service law, and tendering to the President the peroval and support of the people of he State. Employes who breathed thort in presence of Secretary Smith can take a long broath in the presence of Scoretary Thompson-provided it is not too late. AT THE commencement of the last thool year the appropriations were found to be inadequate, through some areless miscalculation, to pay the alaries for which they were intended to provide. There was in consequence reporal reduction of three per cent of salaries of teachers, with the under standing that a refund would be proviiled for in the next Deficiency bill The lady teachers, who are at the best poorly paid, are now making anxiouinquiry as to what has been done to re deem this promise. Justice and fairness require every effort to secure the repayment to those who consented to the general reduction to protect the small number who would have otherwise been displaced for lack of funds.

A garetal correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette at New Albany, Ind., says that the vote of Senator Logan against the Payne investigation has killed bim as "dead as a smelt." Fut this is not all. In more classic, but less odoriferous allegory, the Senator's fall recalls to the mind of the correspondent's informant, "the description given by Milton of the fall of Lucifer from the highest pinnacle of heaven to the profoundest depths of hell." Which we must say leaves Logan in a bad fix, not only dead, but reasting. But we have great faith in "Black Jack's" recuperative powers. Nobody is going to be sacrificed this year to the vagaries of Ohio politics.

Mn. Hoan's speech in the Senate yesterday berating the President for removing Republicans from office and putting in Democrats reads like the speech of a disaffected Mugwump. Insmuch as the Senator from Massachusetts is a stalwart of the stalwarts, however, who did what he could to prevent the election of Mr. Cleveland and is now doing all he can to undervalue his administration, we do not see what business Mr. Hoar has to complain of Mr. Cleveland for not keeping Mr. Hoar's friends in place.

FROM present appearances the bulk of the baggage of our gifted countryman, Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, on his return to the United States will consist of the honorary degrees he is receiving abroad. An American is seldom so honored-never one who bears his honors with such gentle manly good nature and quiet grace.

bill appropriating $5,000 to be expended in gilding the statue of the Goddess of Liberty on the dome of the Capitol. Congress might save that money to the Government and at the ame time help the rest of us in making the Goddess a work of art by painting her red next Sunday.

Hon. KNUTE NELSON, one of the four Republicans who voted in favor of consideration of the Tariff bill, has received news of his renomination by ecclamation. The friends of revenue reform in Minnesota are firm in their faith and stick fast to their friends.

MR. BLAINE has made no public pro nouncement to that effect, but it is reasonably safe to say that he is warmly in favor of the Ohio Senatorial investi

Entron Carrie: Will you be kind enough to explain just what the scarlet "beretta" and "zucchetta" arc, with which Arch-bishop Gibbons was recently invested? PHOTESTANT.

The beretta is a square cap with three corners rising from the crown and having a tassel hanging. It was worn as early as the ninth century, when it had no corners, but resembled an ordinary cap. But its pliability making it difficult to place on the head, the shape was changed to the present one, the three corners being symbolical of the Trioity. It is of two colors, red and black, red being worn by cardinals, and without a tassel, and black by all inferior officers, a bishop's having a green lining. The beretta, hesides daily use, can be worn in the sanctuary during the less solemn portions of the mass. As worn by the Greeks, it is close litting and usually of a violet color.
